Xulon Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Bible is the single-most important document for the Christian believer. It is the source of knowledge for a relationship with God and a path for Godly living. But for many Christians, especially new Christians, the Bible can be intimidating and confusing. This book seeks to give the reader a basic foundation of what the Bible is about in six comprehensive lessons. Once the reader has completed these lessons, he/she will have the basic knowledge necessary to approach any further study of the Bible with confidence! When our church set out to build a new strategy for spiritual development, we were looking for an Introduction to the Bible course that explored the story of God's work of salvation, from Genesis to Revelation. Karen has provided an engaging, easily accessible resource for exploring believers. She has done an excellent job of painting the forest by highlighting just the right trees. -Rev. Dr. Dirk Rodgers, Executive Pastor, Bethany Church, Greenland, New Hampshire Karen has accomplished what many scholars have tried to do but have failed - to write an introduction to the Bible that is truly just that - an introduction. Not too much, not too little, this book is a true gift to the new believer who is just seeking the next step in their understanding of the Bible. -Mark Fee, Pastor of Spiritual Development, Bethany Church, Greenland, New Hampshire Karen R. Edwards resides in New Hampshire. She holds a B.A. in Business and Economics from Gordon College, Wenham, Massachusetts and a M.A. in Economics from the University of New Hampshire, Durham, New Hampshire. A Christian since 1983, Karen is a strong follower of God and an avid...
