Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. annotated edition. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Sarah Palin s Piece of the American Pie, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Rosemary Bachelor asks whether Palin is an American patriot or a political pawn in the foreplay to the 2012 presidential election. A partial response to Palin s Going Rogue: An American Life, Bachelor s smartly written, pitch-perfect political expose is unapologetically biased and leaves no stone unearthed in trying to crack the riddle of one of the most enigmatic cause celebres the country has ever known. Bachelor writes: Many sideline observers of Sarah s upward and onward trajectory express concern about all the things she doesn t know. It may, however, be time to also be disturbed about what Sarah thinks she does know. In eight fully annotated, thought-provoking chapters such as Sarah Palin s Politics: A New World Recipe?, At Issue: The Ingredients, and Sarah Palin s Patriotism: Which Way to Slice It?, Bachelor pulls no punches in uncovering what Palin stands for and what she, or those who control her, hope to accomplish. The author also expresses concern for the American image abroad, saying: Some onlookers, many of them in Canada and the European nations, sense in the United States an unstable marriage of politics and religion that projects a very fundamentalist world view. Its wedding cake is decorated with incendiary ideas for domination of the Mideast, ideas which intrigue Jews and terrify Muslims. Beyond Palin s ability to rally fellow countrymen with fiery rhetoric, Palin s plainspoken battle cries are often hollow of meaning and intent. Bachelor contends that Palin didn t get where she is by having facts in her toolbox, which means the former governor of Alaska is either...
