Here, Jack, give me some elbow room if you want me to do any real snowball throwing! cried Fred Rover. All the elbow room you want, returned his cousin gayly. Remember the prize! shouted Andy Rover to the cadets who were stringing themselves out in a ragged line. The first fellow to throw a snowball over the top of the barn gets a sock doughnut. For gracious sake! what do you call a sock doughnut? demanded Phil Franklin, another cadet, as he paused in the act of rounding up a snowball he was making. A sock doughnut is one with a big hole in it, answered Andy, with a grin. Then my socks must be all of the doughnut variety, put in one of the cadets dolefully. They are always full of holes. Never mind the socks now! cried Randy Rover. Let s see who can put the first snowball over the barn. It was late in the afternoon of a day in January and a number of...
