HarperCollins, United States, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Virginia Woolf introduced us to the Angel in the House, now prepare to meet. The Bitch In the House. Women today have more choices than at any time in history, yet many smart, ambitious, contemporary women are finding themselves angry, dissatisfied, stressed out. Why are they dissatisfied? And what do they really want? These questions form the premise of this passionate, provocative, funny, searingly honest collection of original essays in which twenty-six women writers--ranging in age from twenty-four to sixty-five, single and childless or married with children or four times divorced--invite readers into their lives, minds, and bedrooms to talk about the choices they've made, what's working, and what's not. With wit and humor, in prose as poetic and powerful as it is blunt and dead-on, these intriguing women offer details of their lives that they've never publicly revealed before, candidly sounding off on: - The difficult decisions and compromises of living with lovers, marrying, staying single and having children- The perpetual tug of war between love and work, family and career- The struggle to simultaneously care for ailing parents and a young family- The myth of co-parenting- Dealing with helpless mates and needy toddlers- The constrictions of traditional women's roles as well as the clichés of feminism- Anger at laid-back live-in lovers content to live off a hardworking woman's checkbook- Anger at being criticized for one's weight- Anger directed at their mothers, right and wrong- And well-more anger. This book was born out of anger, begins Cathi Hanauer, but the end result is an intimate sharing of experience that will move, amuse, and enlighten. The Bitch in the House is a perfect companion for your students...
