Good seed will not produce good fruit, or abundantly, without good culture. Besides, God does not waste His gifts; nor does He deem them unworthy either of appreciation or return. Nature never lends The smallest scruple of her excellence, But like a thrifty goddess she determines Herself the glory of a creditor, Both thanks and use. It is worthy of remembrance that grace, however it may be contemned by the self-righteous, is a felt need of every true believer, --the firmer the belief the more urgent the feeling, --and that while God, in accordance with His unerring wisdom, proportions the gift, it is one for which man should most earnestly and incessantly pray. Christian life is a struggle. St. Paul at one time sought naturally to avoid the conflict. He prayed that the thorn might be removed....
