Excerpt: .only State whose exposition is now ready is one of the New England States, Massachusetts. The superintendent of the schools of Maiden, Mr. Gay, principal of a high school, has been charged by his State government to organize this exposition, and ho llas kindly done tho honors of it for mo. I looked with interest through tho exercise books of tho scholars from the first school year until the ninth. These have been mado with reference to the Exposition, but according to tho customary habits and methods. There is a school iu which all exercises are written with load pencil, at least for several years, and they have been written in the same way for Chicago. It does not seem to me that the Massachusetts scholars do better work than ours at tho same age; they write more legibly in very big characters and retain this habit until the end; they do less dictation, and they seem to mo less advanced in arithmetic. For some years particular caro.has been given to drawing, which was formerly neglected or even unknown. It becamo by degrees optional and at last obligatory. Three orders of exercises are followed which aim at a special end--exercises with Btraight lines, which tend to mechanical and industrial drawing; exercises with curved lines, which preparo for ornamentation, and exercises in copying and coloring, which lead to artistic drawing and painting. Tho series of these three exercises seemed to ine very interesting and worthy of...
