Yet tain t over-natural for a father to feel kinder sad on bis daughter s wedding day, though she be goin to many the smartest lad that ever trod a ship s deck. Ever since my little wife died, fifteen long years ago, Annie has been the sole comforter to lighten my sorrow. God bless her gentle heart! And now, just as old age begins to creep upon me, I must lose her. She says she will be the same kind daughter, but in her love for that young sailor, Howard Lee, I am afraid she ll lose some of the old affection for her father. But I mustn t let...
