CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. What do we do when adversity challenges our Christian beliefs? Times of trouble force us to define who we are and whom we trust. And when we face our worst fears, our greatest adventures with God may begin. This true account chronicles the author's quest for God's purpose in her life. Situations range from participating in a medical mission to Mongolia and working in a maximum-security prison. What happens when our ideas of destiny collide with God's invitation to serve? Throughout the whole process of rediscovering God, Deitz comes to a new understanding of how he calls us and what it means to trust in him. Based on the structure of Psalm 23, the chapters in Employed by God: Benefits Packaged with Faith combine her personal story with Bible passages and include study questions for small-group discussions. Adults who have faced unemployment, the death of a loved one, or adversity of any kind will be filled with hope as they read examples of how God works in the lives of ordinary people. This truly inspiring book will help renew our gratitude, teach us how to forgive mistakes, and guide us toward personal fulfillment. Employed by God: Benefits Packaged with Faith won the religious non-fiction category in the national 2012 Next Generation Indie Book contest and placed silver in the 2012 Readers Favorite Contest. I lost my job 90 days ago. After I finished reading the first chapter of Employed by God, I found hope again. Brenda Wickard What a moving story and written in a way that is clear and compelling. --Vinita Hampton Wright, author of Grace at Bender Springs and The Soul Tells A Story I included Tracys...
