Not only that, but Mr. Taft scratched his ballot in order to help elect her a member of the Board of Education. She had no party or ordinary political support, but the straight appeal was made that she was worthy and that nine-tenths of our teachers, one-half of our parents and onehalf of our children are women. She got the second highest number of votes on a non-partizan ticket, and almost ninetenths of them came from men. ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley is authority for the statement that the fight for pure food was won by the women. For twenty-five years the battle had been waged in Washington and the lobbyists of the adulterators and misbranders had prevailed. Then came the women. The passage of the bill was due to the Federated Women s Club of this country,...
