Excerpt: . . . 11 ing almost every high school student in the State and over 42, 000 post secondary students, including adults. Our agency provides technical assistance, curricula, as-sistance with accountability, and leadership for innovation. I am also the President of the National Association of State Directors of Career Technical Education Consortium. Established in 1920, the Consortium serves as the professional society of State and territory agency heads responsible for public career technical education at the secondary, postsecondary and adult levels in all 50 States, 8 U. S. Territories, and the District of Columbia. I request that the associa-tions recommendations for Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act ( Perkins ) reauthorization be included in the record. Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee, the work you do really does make a difference in the lives of students across the country. The decisions you make, and even the speed at which they are made, significantly affect our ability to create op-portunities for students. One such student is Chelsie Lea...
