By Todd Justin Black

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is in no way a suspense novel. The events are coming at you in every chapter. Tyler, an overweight bullied high school student had almost given up on life. His situation seemed hopeless. Then one day it hit him. There were other kids at school in the same situation. Tyler talks to these guys and invites them to a secret meeting to discuss the possibility of forming a gang and fighting back. Their lives change at the first meeting. The boys quickly bond and go from being alone, to part of a larger social group. They stick together, help one another out, and even take a little revenge on some of the bullies. The boys are able to start living life. They play a lot of sports, throw parties, chase girls, and most importantly realize that they have a future. I recommend this book to everyone but especially to those that can relate. In so many stories that I have come across the bullied kid ends up befriendng someone strong that watches out for them....
