

Alfred Hitchcock in His Own Words

By -

BBC Audio, A Division Of Random House, United Kingdom, 2013. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 140 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New. In interviews ranging from 1955 to 1980, Alfred Hitchcock talks about the time he was locked in a police cell when he was a child and being typecast as a director of thrillers. He also discusses his early films; the advent of talkies ; planning Psycho ; American audiences; cinema techniques; horror films, and the influence of real crimes. He considers the difference between making films in America and Britain; the importance of lighting; his female leads, and being a practical joker. As well as critics, he also touches on avoiding cliches; murder in film; film editing and music; The Birds ; the star factor in actors, and making comedies. Please note that, due to the age and nature of this archive material, the sound quality may vary. AudioGO s In Their Own Words series features interviews with some of the key figures from the fields of entertainment, sport, politics and literature - many of which haven t been heard since their original transmission. This is a unique window into the past and is a chance...
